

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 27, 1905.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:36 and sets 7:30. High water at 3:54 a. m. and 4:15 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and cool tonight. Wednesday fair, warmer; light north to northeast winds.

The Italian Cruiser.

Many people visited the river front yesterday and today to view the Italian cruiser Dalgoli now anchored off this city. Numbers of the officers and men have been ashore any many people have visited the ship. About seven years ago the Italian training ship Amerigo Vespucci lay off this city for some time and many Alexandrians went aboard and were courteously received and entertained by the officers. Those in charge of the Dalgoli are equally as hospitable. A modern man-of-war seldom comes up the Potomac, although during the civil war they were as common as naphtha launches are now. They were, however, but slight improvements over the ships of Admiral Nelson's time. In 1865 the ram Stonewall, built for the Southern Confederacy, lay off Alexandria for a short time. She was regarded as a marvel and hundreds of people to the wharves to gaze upon her. The Stonewall had been delivered up to the United States at the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, and was later sold to the Japanese government. She was the nucleus of the navy afterwards acquired by the Mikado.

Nocturnal Disorders.

Among the cases in the Police Court this morning was that of several young men who were arrested Saturday night charged with disorderly conduct and fighting near the intersection of King and Fayette streets. Some who had been taken in custody failed to appear and forfeited their collateral, and those who stood trial could not be convicted of the charge alleged against them because no one could positively identify them. They were dismissed of the charge of assault, but the fact was established that they were in the neighborhood of the disorder, at midnight. Justice Caton told them that he would want them in the court again, as other arrests were to be made. He also called attention to the many complaints made by residents of that neighborhood, and said that the authorities intended to put a stop to nocturnal disorders.

Making Improvements.

The Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company has begun the enlargement of their acid plant, adjoining Fish run on the north. The fertilizer factory on Princess street, between Lee and Union, has been practically rebuilt on a modern and enlarged scale. A pile driver and dredge are now at the wharf formerly used by the old Baltimore steamer Columbia, where a new and modern pier is to be constructed to accommodate the large schooners which bring fertilizer to the company. This wharf property has been going into decay for the past thirty years, or ever since the Columbia was withdrawn from the time. What was once a large and commodious wharf is now represented by some broken piles. These will be removed, the docks dredged and a fine pier built.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] Duff G. Lewis was appointed trustee in place of W. H. T. Lewis, deceased, under the will of the late Dr. M. M. Lewis.

Com. vs. Charles L. Tyler, colored, indicted for selling liquor without a license, accused pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve 60 days in jail and to pay a fine of $50.

John Ennis, held on the charge of housebreaking, was released on bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the September term, Mr. J. M. Hill being his bondsman.

Baseball.

Another large crowd witnessed the game of baseball yesterday evening on the fair grounds between the Potomacs and the Orientals, which was the best played this season in Alexandria. The score stood: Potomacs, 4; Orientals, 1. Davis, who is somewhat of a spitball pitcher, tossed the ball for the Potomacs. He had plenty of speed and perfect control throughout the game. Cox, who pitched for the Orientals, put up a good game also. Both teams fielded fine. Another good game is booked for today at 5:30 o'clock between the Potomacs (who played yesterday) and the Old Dominions.

An Object Lesson.

Mr. Marshall, of Martinsburg, W. Va., was here yesterday in search of colored laborers for whose services he offered $1.50 to $1.75 a day. He desired to secure four men, but succeeded in obtaining but three. At the last session of the Corporation Court Judge Barley in his charge to the grand jury called attention to the many indolent men, both white and colored, who loaf about certain places without any visible means of support. The above is an object lesson.

Change in the Weather.

The sultry conditions of yesterday were followed by some rain, thunder and lightning toward the close of the day. The cloud, however, parted when it reached this city, and the thickest parts passed north and south of Alexandria. A delightful northwest breeze, however, followed and the temperature fell considerably. Last night was cool and today conditions have been pleasant with a fair sky. The thermometer at noon today registered 74°.

A Narrow Escape.

A soldier fell overboard from the steam launch Doc Reh near Shepherd's late yesterday evening. A companion who was on the launch jumped into the river, and after considerable difficulty succeeded in rescuing the drowning man. It is said that the Potomac, like Niagara Falls, claims, on an average, the sacrifice of one human life yearly. Three persons have found watery graves in the river in one week—a young lady and two men.

Granolithic Pavements.

A fine granolithic pavement has been placed in front of Peabody building on King street. Three others are being laid at the western end of the square, and others are being contemplated in the same vicinity.

The City Council meets tonight.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning.

Harry Carter, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with stealing money from Mrs. Yarrow, was dismissed.

Carrie Brown, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Allen charged with stealing $10 from Fannie Brown, was fined $10.

Tuts Olden, colored, arrested by Officers Nicholson and Henderson charged with stealing sundry articles, was fined $10.

Samuel Williams, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Allen charged with assaulting Bertie Williams was fined $5.

John Blunhan, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson for gambling, was dismissed. Three other colored individuals charged with similar offenses, had their cases continued.

Several young men charged with assault were dismissed for want of evidence.

Three colored boys charged with gambling were fined $2 each, and another charged with a like offense was dismissed.

Tucker, of Norfolk, will be solemnized at St. Paul's Church, this city, tonight. A number of Miss Tucker's relatives in this city left last night to attend the wedding.

New Railroad Work.

The contractors at work on the railroad improvements adjoining this city are rushing the same by working gangs of men night and day. The road bed is being graded and track laid, and in a few weeks' time it is believed trains will be running over the new work. The new depot is rapidly approaching completion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Fine raspberries sold in market today at from 8 to 10 cents a box.

A number of dogs were poisoned last night in the southwestern section of the city.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Ernest K. Lee, of Washington and Lala T. Norris, of Alexandria.

James Nothly was the name of the boy who was drowned in the river opposite this city on Sunday. He had been living at Nottley Hall during the past six months. His body was recovered an hour after he was drowned by the sons of John Swift. The unfortunate youth was 18 years old.

The steamer Norfolk of the Norfolk and Washington line, now at the Newport News shipyard, will receive a general overhauling and will be in thorough order when she returns to service, which will be in about ten days or two weeks. While she is off the route the steamer Newport News, Captain Posey, is in service in her place.

A number of officers and men belonging to the Italian cruiser now lying off this port came ashore today and took the electric trains for Washington.

Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons Drugging.

It has proved itself to be the best remedy for whooping cough, which is prevalent on this end of the globe. It has never failed to relieve in any case where I have recommended it, and grateful mothers, after using it, are daily thanking me for advising them." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The President in Boston.

Boston, June 27.—President Roosevelt, who comes to attend the Harvard commencement, and party arrived at the Back Bay station at 6:45 o'clock this morning, fifteen minutes ahead of schedule. Bishop William Lawrence met the President at the station, and rode with him to his residence. There was a very small crowd at the station, not more than 75 people being in waiting for the chief executive. An escort of ten mounted police guarded the President on the way to the Bishop's house. After reaching Bishop Lawrence's residence, the President took breakfast. Among those present were President Eliot, of Harvard; Judge F. C. Lowell, Rev. I. M. Crothers, and Private Secretary Loeb. The President will remain quietly at the Bishop's house this afternoon. At noon he will go out to the Oakley Club, where he will take luncheon with the class of '80, of which he is a member, and be photographed.

Dr. John Morgan, the Boston eye specialist, this morning examined the President's eyes. The eye trouble, it is understood, is not at all serious. At 11:35 the President left the home of Bishop Lawrence for the Oakley Club. At that time rain was falling in torrents. The President was accompanied by Bishop Lawrence and his son, Kermit. The President's carriage was followed by others containing Secretary Loeb and the secret service men. The start for the Oakley Club was made early in order that the President might call at the home of Mrs. George C. Hill, the mother of the first Mrs. Roosevelt.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Secretary Wm. H. Taft will reach Boston. He comes to Boston to receive a degree from Harvard tomorrow. This afternoon the President will have a conference with Secretary Taft, regarding Panama canal matters.

Equitable Life Assurance Society.

New York, June 27.—Grover Cleveland, supreme court justice Morgan O'Brien, and George Westinghouse, trustees of the majority stock in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, which was recently purchased by Thomas F. Ryan, from James H. Hyde, will meet this afternoon, at the Hotel Buckingham, in this city, to consider affairs connected with the trust. It is understood that the trustees will arrange a plan at this meeting, whereby the policy holders can designate their choice of men for the twenty-eight directors, who, under the new plan, are to be named by the policy holders. It is probable that the plan will be adopted of having the trustees draft a list of names for which the policy holders will be allowed to vote. The men receiving the highest number of votes may then be chosen by the trustees, who will cast the actual votes. Paul Morton, the new chairman of the Board, this morning announced that he had received the resignation of Charles Stewart Smith, a director.

Fire and Narrow Escape.

Boston, June 27.—Six persons were injured, one fatally, and several others had narrow escapes from death in a fire this morning in a lodging house at 157 Meriden street, east Boston. Only one person, the lady, Mrs. Josephine White, escaped by the ordinary means of exit. Four of the lodgers jumped from the windows of the second, third, and fourth floors; two others, forty feet in the air, made their way along a narrow gutter to an adjoining house, and one man was carried down the ladder by firemen. The three daughters of Mrs. White, one of them carrying her 3-year-old daughter, crawled over a narrow plank from a rear window on the second floor to the fire-escape on the big Meriden building. Dan Rallis jumped from a window on the third floor. He landed face foremost on the ground and was horribly mangled. He will probably die.

The Kiel Yacht Races.

Kiel, Germany, June 27.—The Kaiser's yacht Meteor III, the Iduna, yacht of Empress Victoria Augusta, and the Hamburg started in the yacht race today. The Emperor is sailing the Meteor III, and Cornelius Vanderbilt, Charlemagne Tower, United States Ambassador to Germany, and R. W. Golet accompanied him as his guests. Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Tower, and Mrs. Golet were the guests of the empress on board the Iduna. Henry S. Redmond's Alisa contested with the Orion, the yacht of Prince Henry of Prussia. In the race between the Meteor III, the Hamburg, and Iduna, the Hamburg finished two minutes ahead of the Meteor III. Prince Henry's Orion defeated the Alisa by this narrow margin of 90 seconds.

Miss Rogers' Disappearance.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., June 27.—The fate of Mary O. Rogers, the Virginia girl, who wandered away from the cottage where she was staying, is still a mystery. The search was re-umed today, but thus far not a solitary clue to the whereabouts of the girl has been obtained. When Willoughby Smith, the girl's guardian, learned last night that no developments had come from the day's work, he immediately offered a large reward for any information concerning Miss Rogers' movements since Sunday night. If the woman wandered away into the mountains clad as she was, according to the nurse, only in a night dress and without shoes or stockings, she is probably dead by this time from exposure.

Royal Arcanum.

Boston, June 27.—The executive committee of the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum, that body wherein originated the new system of rates at present causing so much agitation in the ranks of the large fraternal organization, meets today. While it is one of the committee's regular meetings held always in Boston about six weeks after the annual meeting of the Supreme Council, the possibility that on this occasion the executive body will take some formal action regarding the new rates makes the session one of great interest and results will be watched for by Royal Arcanumites all over the country.

London Money Market.

London, June 27.—2:15 p. m. Owing to the distinct favorable change in the political situation, the complexion of the securities markets generally has altered for the better. This is practically reflected in the strengthening of gilt edged securities, American Railways are firm.

In the Supreme Court at Ottawa today

Wallace, Chief Engineer of the Panama Canal Commission, who returned from the isthmus a few days ago, has tendered his resignation to President Roosevelt. Neither Mr. Wallace nor officials of the commission will discuss the resignation, but there have been a number of rumors to the effect that serious differences have arisen between him and the other members of the commission and Secretary of War Taft. Mr. Wallace, Panama Commission, and Secretary Taft met here on Sunday, and the whole ground was gone over. After the conference Mr. Wallace announced his intention of resigning.

New York, June 27.—The stock market was broader and more active during the first hour than it has been in a long period. Profits were taken on large accounts and the stocks sold were replaced at once by purchases of other issues. The market was generally favorable to the effect that serious differences have arisen between him and the other members of the commission and Secretary of War Taft. Mr. Wallace, Panama Commission, and Secretary Taft met here on Sunday, and the whole ground was gone over. After the conference Mr. Wallace announced his intention of resigning.
